God is Love and Nothing Else.

PRAISE THE LORD.

(Conclusion of letter from Sanibel, Fla.)

What are these droves of dwellers on the beach that first attract the eye, if the weather be pleasant? "Fiddlers," they are called; a species of dwarf crab, that burrow in the sand, in incredible numbers, and move in serried ranks like swarms of ants, as they go down to the water's margin to feed. As you approach them they appear, the patriarchs of the host lifting their one claw in a sort of gallant but feeble manner; yet still fleeing, as they threaten, just like the rest. Lively little beggars they are. I like them much. They are untiring scavengers; make the best of bait in catching sheepshead, or striped bass, that comes on our table daily. Funny fellows, going sideways even, and rattling a scuttle to movement with their little claws over the beach sand, and making a mighty rustling in the dry grass, as they climb to further safe retreats, in their timid flight. They are always in a state of retreat. Indeed the poor little things are preyed upon by many devouring monsters, especially the crabs, who dig them up and spare not. Bucks gobble them; sea birds feed on them; and fisherman draw on them for handy and excellent bait. They live the life of hunted creatures, day and night. Amazing numbers of our old friend, the raccoon, haunt these mangrove-covered shores. They are expert fishers; can open an oyster or scallop shell; take fiddlers for dessert; and watch the turtles with marauding intent as they deposit their eggs; but I think this "sharp practice" is exceptional, if it be true at all, the robbers, generally waiting in small squads, and marking their prey from a cautious distance. One can get a popgun there with a gun any night, when the moon is shining. They patrol the beach in full force, picking up everything edible, whether thrown up by the waves or left by careless housekeepers. While we cooked on shore, near the Teal Trap, for the first few days of arrival they visited our kitchen nightly, and took what they liked.

But we are wandering from the benefit of our shells would be considered rare and plentiful and beautiful, on the San Carlos side, but that we have been on the Gulf beach and seen how many more there are, and how exquisite is the scattered wealth of that beautiful shore! But in these minor nooks, where the position of the sharply-surfaced points is favorable, there are piled up banks of shells 3 or 4 feet deep, of nearly uniform size, generally an inch in diameter, pure white and of such delicate pattern that it seems a sin to crush over them with one's boot heels. From these banks we get the material for strewing out church floor and making the damnest garden walks imaginable. The most striking feature of the Punta Gorda Grand Hotel — $1 a day — is the breadth of these exquisite shell walks that radiate from the wide verandas.

Wondrous, too, are the mangrove roots silting up the stocks and foliage so that one can walk through a labyrinth of these bayou-like supports; with impenetrable shade overhead and the bodies of the trees lying in semi-horizontal and fantastic writhings far above the wash of the salt tide. The roots take hold of bare sand. What measturments they find is surely "after their kind." No other tree but the mangrove can thrive and grow with nothing to eat but sand, nothing to drink but brine. Some of these superb growths, as one threads the gnarled and knotted tangle, give the impression of the pillars grandeur of a cathedral; one the wildest luxuriance of nature; the other the studied perfection of art; assume as possible; yet both striking the same chord in our aesthetic nature.

Behind these mangrove jungles run narrow and shallow streams here and there, where the cranes and curlews, bitterns and coots delight to gather for the night. These "rookeries" are noisy enough in the early morning, and when a human foot invades the solitude the whirring of wings and discordant cries of the disturbed birds, fill the welkin with a chaos of strange sounds.

The plumage of the white crane vies with that of the ostrich in grace and beauty. They are found by the thousands in these mangrove swamps.

But who can give, even a half idea of the unaccustomed sights and sounds of this tropical latitude? Everything is strange; and the endless varieties of form and flow baffle the brain and pen to describe them. I despair of conveying to my readers what Will and I see every morning as we trudge to the homestead. It is already growing familiar to us, and we stamp upon the shabby glories of the bigeh, without taking time to admire and wonder at anything, unless it be something so singular and before unseen that it halts us for an inquiring moment of inspection.

I finish this hurriedly on the 21st. The storm is over. Bay tranquil and serene; sun bright; air briny. We are preparing to run up to Fort Myers in the Alice Howard, that passes St. James at noon. F. M. is our county town, where we put in our affairs of homestead entries. "Captain Sam" — the hardy boatman of San Carlos — is waiting to transport our luggage to the lumber landing, to be forwarded by our trusty "Buck and Bally" in the wagon to the new premises. Part of the Troope remain to superintend removal. Part go to F. M. on the needed legal business. We expect to return tomorrow, D. V.

So all is present hurry and bustle and I yield to the rush of circumstances and close in haste. All well.

Even in Jesus. — GEO. O. BARNES.

Programme of Teachers' Association.

To be held at Hustonville, March 15th and 16th, 1889.

FRIDAY NIGHT.

Welcome Address. Rev. Bogie. Response, Prof. Niles.

"Ignorance a crime in this Age," essay, Miss Bogie.

"Possibilities of the School-Boom," Prof. Hughes.

"Proper Incentives to Study," Mrs. J. E. Troyer.

Lecture on "Words," Prof. Rupley.

"How Shall we Secure Better Houses and Necessary Appliances?" Mrs. M. F. Denny.

"Teachers' Authority and Rights—How Protected," Rev. Bogie.

Essay — "What Shall We Do With The Bad Girl?" Miss Alice Stuart.

Discussion to follow each subject.

SATURDAY MORNING.

"How Shall we Become Successful Teachers?" K. L. Tanner.

Responsibility of Parents. Prof. W. F. McClure.

"Shall we Lower our Wages to Secure a Position?" Prof. G. Singleton.

Trustees, patrons and friends, we entreat you to encourage us by your presence!

PROF. W. F. NILES,

PROF. N. W. HUGHES,

MISS ALICE STUART,

MRS. J. E. TROYER,

HIGHLAND — MRS. L. L. FAULKNER is visiting friends and relatives at Barboursville, Woodbine and Jefferson. We hope to see her return soon. We understand that two of our prominent men are contending for the P. T. at this place, but we cannot see their object as there is neither high honor or large pay in it, but a drawing man will catch at a straw. John Brugh has just returned from the mountains where he has been on a prospecting tour and appears to be in high spirits about the lumber business in that section. Cash & Faulkner are doing a good business at their saw mill. Wheezy cough is raging in this and the Kingsville neighborhoods. Wm. Bonett has bought the property known as the Horton or P. T. property, where he has opened a first-class stock of general merchandise. J. H. Britt is salesman. Zachariah Badgett was taken to jail yesterday by Constable Gibbons to pay a fine of $10 and the costs for committing a breach of the peace at Harroldtown not long since. He attacked Arch Huston with a pistol with the intent of doing him bodily harm.

In 1796 Thomas Jefferson was defeated for President of the United States but four years later he was triumphantly elected; in 1821 Gen. Jackson was defeated for President though he had a pluralty of the popular vote, but in 1828 Gen. Jackson was chosen president by an immense majority; in 1836 William Henry Harrison was defeated for President, but at the next election he swept the country. There is nothing in the above narrative out of our political history to discourage anyone from Cleveland; besides the election of Ben Harrison was fought for him in open market, and if the next administration is disastrous in the sense of a financial crisis, no power on earth can prevent the nomination and election of Mr. Cleveland in 1892.

Bobby (proud of his progress in Latin) — "Pop, what's the Latin for people?" Father — "I don't know." Bobby (loudly) — "Popoli." Father (hereby) — "What do you mean, you young scamp? Lie down!" and he proceeded to paddle him where he did the most good.

Persons wishing to improve their memories or strengthen their power of attention should send to Prof. E. S. 210 Fifth Ave., N. Y., for his prolix past free, as advertised in another column.

DANVILLE, BOYLE COUNTY.

The Carr Pryor Company played to a small house here Friday night.

— Only a few went from this place to the inauguration, A. E. Gibbons and E. H. Thiele being among the number.

— W. H. Dunn and Thomas Emery have formed a partnership in the livery business and will run the Cursier stable.

The great number of petitions passing around for signatures would lead one to believe some body wants to be postmaster.

— Mr. Claude May and Miss Mary E. Clarkson were married last Wednesday at the residence of the bride's parents, in this county, Rev. B. H. Caldwell officiating.

— The negro, George Dunn, for robbing Wm. Banford's hen roost, was sentenced to the penitentiary for 1 year, this time the chickens are glad and will not roost so high now.

— The town was crowded Sunday with the colored population. The colored members of the O. F. M. paraded the streets and afterwards assembled at one of their churches to hear a sermon by one of their "big guns."

— A little excitement was created on the streets Saturday evening by a fight between a negro man and his wife. She was the aggressor and no doubt needed "carrying down" as some told him if he would whip her they would pay his fine.

— Some months ago Mr. W. L. Reed bought of Mr. Carson the livery stable and grounds on the corner of 4th and Main for $7,500. The trade has been cancelled because in a previous sale to Dr. Nave of an adjoining house he had sold half the wall, while Reed's dead called for all of the wall.

— The Commercial Club of Danville will hold its first monthly meeting next Tuesday night. Much business will be attended to and a discussion of the new railroad will be had during the evening. The first meeting should be largely attended as these are the meetings that we should be most concerned in so as to make a good beginning.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

The Methodist meeting at Mt. Carmel, Fleming County, resulted in over contributions.

— Miss Frances Willard announces April 28th as the World's Day of Prayer for the temperance cause.

— Communion services will be held at the Presbyterian church next Sunday, with the usual preparatory meetings, beginning Friday night.

Rev. Ben Hydu prayed for the incoming administration Sunday. The prayers of the righteous availeth much, but we fear it will take a long pull, a strong pull and a pull together to help Harrison through.

The Methodist prayer meeting on Thursday nights is one of the best attended and most interesting in town. Nearly all the members take part and at the last meeting the music was particularly good. Mrs. Porter Stagg sang the solo, "Sweet Calilee," with marked sweetness and effect.

— The meeting at the First Baptist church here closed last night at the end of its 6th week, and Mr. Hale returns to Louisville this morning. Eighteen more were added to the church yesterday, making a total of 110 since the meeting began. The membership now is 733. — Weyersboro Messenger.

We are not in the habit of reproducing the good things said about us by our partial brethren of the spilt, but as this compliment one who truly deserves it, we take pleasure in copying it. It is from the Pineville Messenger:

We are gratified to learn that our dearly beloved but unfortunate Bro. Walton, of the Stanford Examiner [now defunct], has so far recovered from the injuries received on an icy sidewalk as to take his place at the journalistic helm. Bro. Walton was supremely lucky to have such an able assistant as E. C. Walton to take charge of his paper during his disability, and we are glad to know that while Bro. Walton suffered the Examiner journal lost none of its prestige.

DANVILLE. Mr. J. Boyle Read was struck on the head by a falling rail and seriously hurt. Judge N. Sandifer caused Judge T. Z. Morrow in open court in Danville last week. It was made out of mountain laurel and most artistically carved. Mr. J. B. Marrs will not go into the newspaper business at Mt. Sterling at the end of his official term, as reported.

The Advocate safe has been systematically robbed for sometime by a white boy, whose name is suppressed at the request of his father, who is an honest, hard-working man. Benham Gentry purchased of Hon. Wm. Berkely a pair of 133 hand mules that weigh 2,850 pounds, for $235. — Ad vocate.

— Hervey A. Gould, a Boston rubber dealer, has failed for a million.

HUSTONVILLE.

— Mr. Zach Shackelford, an old citizen of the county, died at Millidgeville on Saturday. He was buried at our cemetery on Sunday. Funeral service at the Christian church by Elder J. Q. Montgomery.

— In his last issue the editor recalls the fact that he has for 14 years presided over the interests of the Interior Journal. He may well contemplate with honest pride the results of his labors, Jacob of old won undying fame by his perseverance in laboring 14 years to secure a wife; but Walton has beaten Jacob's time to death. I well remember when I first saw him, young, handsome, hopeful, ensconced in a dark and dingy little office, surrounded by a chaos of grimy hand-presses, wrinkled rollers and tottering cases, in a strange community, haunted by the ghosts of hecataurus of county papers that had died in unheralded infamy; but exhibiting that peculiar dash of the eye and alertness of movement that bespoke a determination to do or die. His progress, in spite of many obstacles encountered bravely and scattered by his unflagging energy, has been continually onward, upward and triumphant. First he won a better wife than both of Jacob's put together. He infused his own spirit into his paper, increased its size, beautified its aspect and made it one of the sauciest (and at the same time most dignified) sheets in the commonwealth. The "spit up Utica" of the original office was too enfeebled for his aspirations and therefore he procured a spacious and pleasant building, discarded his old cumbersome and unsightly machinery, adopted every reliable improvement, converted the paper into a semi-weekly, employed a steam engine to generate his power and settled the problem of the age by showing that a country paper can not only live, but prosper. And permit me to put in the humble boast that the present contributor has in a feeble, obscure and unpretending way been with the paper even longer than the present editor. He loves the old, familiar sheet — the editor his kindly staff — even confesses to a growing admiration for the colored dialects, and while sharing none of the gloomy rejoices in the success of the I. J.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

— William M. Kidd and Miss Victoria Bastin, a sweet sixteen, were married at Mr. W. M. Wood's, near Highland, yesterday. Kidd was in town for his license before sunrise yesterday morning.

The Pope was 70 Friday.

The House very properly declined to vote a year's salary to the widow of the late Chief Justice Waite.

Paducah voted by 900 majority Saturday $10,000 to the Paducah and Tennessee and $60,000 to the Paducah, Hickman and Southern railroads.

"Jim," a young Seminole Indian boy, became crazy and started on the warpath in the Florida Everglades. With Winchester rifle he slew seven Indians before he was himself killed.

— A claim agent at Washington has sued W. F. Vilas and P. M. General Dickinson for $10,000 damages because they notified postmasters that his services were not necessary in the adjustment of their claims.

— Near Springfield Robert Mullens shot and fatally wounded Robert Moore, his brother-in-law. Mullens' wife had left him and gone to her brother's home, the latter being shot while defending his sister from her husband.

— W. P. Harvey, son of the editor of the Western Recorder, shot himself while under the influence of liquor, but the ball struck a rib and glanced instead of reaching the heart. It is said that his dissipation was caused by despondency over the death of his grandmother.

— Guy Wilson, of West Virginia, issued certificates to democrats in the 3d and 4th districts, but the republican candidates will contest for the seats before Congress and finally get them, as the republican rule will be to seat republican contestants simply because they are republicans.

— In the trial of Thomas B. Vines, the defendant who had himself shipped in a trunk to St. Louis, with $10,000 stolen from his employers, the jury found a verdict of guilty, but obtained no relief until I began to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. A neighbor, Mrs. Gleam, had the measles, and the cough was relieved by the use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I have no hesitation in recommending this remedy.

— My wife had a distressing cough, pain in the side and breast. We tried various medicines, but none did her any good until I got a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, which has cured her. A neighbor, Mrs. Gleam, had the measles, and the cough was relieved by the use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I have no hesitation in recommending this remedy.

— My son Montague had a severe hemoptysis of the lungs, brought on by an incessant cough which deprived me of sleep and rest. I tried various remedies, but obtained no relief until I began to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. A neighbor, Mrs. Gleam, had the measles, and the cough was relieved by the use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

— For children afflicted with colds, croup, sore throat or croupy fits, which will give great trouble, than Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I have found it also useful in cases of whooping cough. — W. H. Jackson & Co., Pro's.

— Good riding and saddle horses always for hire on reasonable terms. London is the most convenient point on the railroad to reach places in the mountain section of the state.

BALED HAY, STRAW, &c.

— I am prepared to ship a short notice, from any of the depots in this country on the L. & N. and K. C. the best-had Hay or straw by the car load or small quantity, ordered direct, B. D. HOLMES, Rowland, Ky.

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD, KY., MARCH 5, 1889

W. P. WALTON.

Those who claimed that Grover Cleveland would dodge the issue by letting the Direct Tax bill die on his hands, were mistaken in the man. There is no quality so foreign to his nature as cowardice and when he is sure's he's right he never fails to obey Davy Crockett's injunction, to go ahead. Saturday he returned the bill to Congress without his approval, accompanying it with the following vigorous opinion: "A sheer, bold gratuity, bestowed either upon States or individuals, based upon no better reason than supports the gift proposed in this bill, has never been claimed to be a provision for the general welfare. The baneful effect of a surplus in the treasury of the general government is daily seen and felt. I do not think, however, that this surplus should be reduced, or its contagion spread throughout the States, by methods such as are provided in the bill." The Senate passed the bill over the President's veto, but the measure died in the House.

Last week the dailies were full of sensational matter regarding the separation of Louis James and Marie Wainright, on account of the alleged infidelity to the marriage vows of the latter. Now we are regaled with news of the proceedings for divorce entered by Maggie Mitchell against her husband, Henry Paddock, the rich New York broker, to whom she has been married long enough to have a girl 19 and a boy 17 years of age. She charges that the old man has been wandering off after other and younger goddesses, which she could never forgive, although she is now old and wrinkled herself. Marriage with the average atrial man or woman is usually a matter of convenience or passing fancy and in most cases proves a very decided fail.

TALBEE, whose term of office expired at noon yesterday, will not be missed by the democrats. His course in Congress has not been in keeping with that of the party he claims to belong to, and he has twice voted with the republicans to pass bills over the President's veto, the pension steal and the Des Moines land grant. A straight-out republican is better than a milk-and-eider democrat, and the 10th Congressional district will lose nothing by swapping the lond-voted Taulbee for Wilson.

The Covington Commonwealth is making it hot for what it terms the Frankfort generally and Auditor Hewitt in particular, who it claims have the State by the throat and it is either death to them or Kentucky. It blames the auditor for the Tate defalcation and prints his testimony in bold caps to convict him of gross negligence. We have not the slightest idea that Mr. Hewitt ever meant to do wrong, but his confidence in Tate amounted almost to infatuation.

COL. SEARS, who has spent his miserable life abusing his betters, is now in his glory as Washington as correspondent of the Louisville Commercial. This is the way he barked at Cleveland a day or two before his retirement: "Cleveland seems to have fewer friends than any retiring President in the history of the country, except Hayes. His followers desert him as he deserted Manning and Randall and every other friend who ever rendered him any service."

At last accounts Editor Cravens, of the Barboursville News, was hesitating at the forks of the roads which lead, the one by "the hot dry route of typhoid and the other through the low grounds of the chill and fever settlement." We hope he took a dose of Crab Orchard salts in preference to either of them and is now in proper condition to express his opinion of his friend, Denham of the Jefferson News.

We have received a copy of a 24-page pamphlet issued by Ayres & Givens, attorneys at Louisville, setting forth the advantages and resources of Eastern Kentucky and giving information of a most valuable character to those who want to make investments. If you are interested in the writer send to James G. Givens, 327 5th street, for a copy and for any other information on the subject in question.

RECOGNIZING the necessity of a Simon pure democratic paper in that county, Messrs. Sam M. Boone and C. E. Tidwell have commenced the publication of the Pulaski Enterprise at Somerset, and promise a rigid adherence to Jeffersonian and Jacksonian principles. We wish them good luck and hope that they will be able to pull the county out of republican ruts.

The story is sent out from Harrington that the skeleton of John Simpson, who has been missing since 1873, was found in a hollow tree near the Washington county line. It was identified by his watch, which the charming Mr. should have added was still running.

The type and presses used by Editor Rucker, at Somerset, were sold from under him, but that did not shut out the life of the Reporter. He hustled at once to Cincinnati, got a new plant and his paper was out as usual last Thursday.

HERE'S YER PRESIDENT.

The Cabinet Semi-Officially Announced.

BAD MUSIC FOR THE HUNGRY HORDE.

Special Dispatch to the Interior Journal: WASHINGTON, March 4, 3 p. m.—The House of Representatives adjourned at noon, the Senate at 12:25, the clock having been set back. The new Senate then convened. Vice-President Morton took the oath of office and the Senators were sworn.

At 12:45 President Harrison mounted the platform and read his address. It is a very conservative paper, emphasizing civil service reform, protection and the enforcement of election laws. Recommends a conservative treatment of the differences with foreign powers; advises office seekers not to be importunate, as every application will be thoroughly weighed; cautions people who sign recommendations to be careful and conscientious and says no party changes will be made. No sectional issue is mentioned, nor is the bloody shirt once mentioned.

The official announcement of the cabinet will not be made till tomorrow, but semi-officially it is:

Secretary of State—Blaine, of Maine.

Secretary of the Treasury—Wendell of Minnesota.

Secretary of War—Proctor, of Vermont.

Secretary of the Interior—Noble, of Missouri.

Postmaster General—Wanamaker, of Pennsylvania.

Secretary of Agriculture—Jeremiah Rusk, of Wisconsin.

Two years ago prohibition was carried in Christian county by a good majority. The question was voted on again Saturday when the former verdict of the ballot was reversed by more than 750. Hopkinsville went 610 against and there were considerable anti-prohibition gains in the county precincts. The prohibitionists attribute their heavy defeat to disgust over the inefficient enforcement of the law, which enabled blind tigers and other devices to do a lucrative business, while the city was deprived of the revenue.

At long last ordered Deputy Marshal Rogers to be dismissed from the service on the affidavit of John D. White, who avore he had been leavored to influence a case against his client. The real reason of White's action was that Rogers wanted to climb his spine. Rogers says that "White is a dirty coward and had to take the case into court for protection. I will make him meet me on equal grounds or publish him as a coward in every newspaper in the State of Kentucky."

A miscreant from Washington says fully 10,000 tickets at $5 had been sold to the Inaugural ball last night. Negroes have been liberal purchasers and this is giving the elect much concern. But the negro is as good as a majority of the whites that were there and we hope they were out in sufficient numbers to crowd their white brethren and sisters to the wall.

Bernard House of Congress were in session Sunday. The delinquency and the sundry civil bills were passed, after much wrangling, and at 2:20 yesterday morning the House adjourned until 9. The Senate was still in session. Both bodies died at noon yesterday, going on record as having had the longest sessions ever held by Congress.

LEXINGTON seems determined to hog all the persimmons next time, though only four candidates for State offices are out or spoken of as yet. The lay out now is M. C. Alford, Lieutenant-Governor; Col. John D. Hodges, Superintendent of Public Instruction; Charles J. Bronston, Attorney General, and Capt. S. G. Sharp, Treasurer.

I am a democrat with all that the word implies. I am, moreover, an intense democrat, in that I believe the true principles of the democratic party are essential to the well being of this country.

—Ex-President Grover Cleveland, who will be President, Cleveland again four years hence unless all present signs go for naught.

No opportunity to abuse and vilify the president has ever been lost by the Commercial-Gazette, whose rantings have made it ridiculous in the eyes of all honest men. The first kind word it has ever given utterance to appeared Saturday and is as follows: "President Cleveland and his estimable wife have acted admirably in their treatment of President-elect Harrison. However we may differ in politics, that is no reason why we should not all be gentlemen and ladies." There is a reason for Halstead not being a gentleman, however. He is not built that way.

But for State rights, which the republicans have denied when it suited them to do so, Harrison would not now be President of these United States. The last election showed the republicans to be 500,000 votes in the minority and compared with the democrats 100,000 behind. Had popular majorities instead of electoral votes prevailed the hungry horde would again be in the soup instead of this swim.

The first Blackburn ever known to resign an office is young Jim Blackburn, who has given up the position of Chief of the railway adjustment division of the postoffice department. He simply made a virtue of a necessity though, as he would have had to walk the plank in a few days.

Judge R. J. Breckinridge announced himself for the Senate in an appropriate speech here yesterday. Royle is entitled to the honor this time and it is very gratifying to know that she has present such excellent timber.

CLEVELAND will be known in history as "Old Veto." During his term as President he vetoed 278 bills—157 more than were vetoed by all his predecessors combined from Washington down.

NEWS CONDENSED.

The negro exodus from North and South Carolina to the West is said to be 1,000 a week.

The new directory of Louisville shows an increase of 12,000 in its population in a year.

The medical department of the University of Louisville turned out 129 young doctors Friday.

—G. Hammond Hunt, one of the pioneers of Central Kentucky, died at his home near Lexington, aged 95.

The Arizona legislature has passed, and the governor has signed, a bill making train robbery a capital crime.

—Hon. Hannibal Hamlin, the only living Vice-President, was a visitor on the floor of the Senate last week.

—Queen Victoria let her crown fall from her head the other day, but failed to break it. It is regarded as a bad omen though.

—High necked dresses, high bustles and a high tariff are the distinguishing marks of the incoming administration. Etown News.

—The train bearing Harrison's old regiment suffered a collision on the way to Washington, but none of the veterans were hurt.

—Warren county by a majority of 1,000 declared in favor of the tax for the Henderson State Line railroad, great excitement prevailed.

—Archie B. Cleveland, the head of a big New York seed company, is gone, and so is the firm's money to the amount of $150,000. No kin to Crover.

Riddleberger was drunk as usual in the Senate Sunday and was ingloriously fired by Senator Ingalls, who recognized him as a dead cook in the pit.

—The public debt has increased $7,000,000 since February 1. This is due to the unusually heavy disbursements during the month for pensions, etc.

—The Clayton murder in Arkansas is as much of a mystery as ever. Robert Watkins, the only man arrested for complicity in the crime, has been discharged.

—The Bank of England is said to be the most extensive banking institution in the world. It employs over 1,000 clerks and its buildings cover more than 5 acres.

—Representative J. W. Linck, of the Indiana legislature, has been suspended for the rest of the session on fined $150 for striking Representative Willard in the face.

—Near Jamestown, Pa., two men entered the house of a wealthy old farmer named Umberger. Having killed him, they took $3,000 in money and made their escape.

—In a fight at Princeton Dempsey Scott cut and seriously wounded William Perkins, who in turn killed Scott. The wife of the latter was the cause of the trouble.

—A dozen firemen were buried in the basement of a burning building at Milwaukee, through the falling in of the four floors after the flames had almost been extinguished.

—Mrs. Harrison is said to have said: "Mrs. Cleveland is positively the loveliest creature I ever saw. I almost feel guilty in depriving her of a position that she adorns so well."

—The Senate confirmed 23 of President Cleveland's recent nominations for postmasters, in the list being Horace Castleton, at Flemingsburg. None of importance were confirmed.

—The Senate confirmed 23 of President Cleveland's recent nominations for postmasters, in the list being Horace Castleton, at Flemingsburg. None of importance were confirmed.

LANCASTER, GARRARD COUNTY.

To-morrow a special term of Circuit Court will convene.

—Capt. W. J. Kinnaird will muster in a new company being the same Company (Co. G.) and belonging to the same regiment.

—The house recently occupied by Geo. D. Bundt and family was sold last Monday for only $1,200. The building cost us much as $2,000 and is owned by the Building and Loan Association.

—Madam Rumor tells us—but she don't always know everything, though she thinks she is so wise, that we are soon to have two weddings in the lower part of the county. We won't tell you who it is, because we don't know.

—It is undecided yet who is to be the next representative from old Garrard. The two contestants at present are Wm. Berkely and R. H. Tomlinson, both gentlemen well known throughout the county. We know of which will be the winner in the race.

—The Building and Loan Association has recently bought of T. Stevens his stone-room and they think of tearing it down and on the same spot placing the engine-house which now adorns our square. We certainly think it would be a good move, and we have never heard any one state that as the engine-house now stands it improves the looks of our city.

—On Wednesday afternoon of last week there was a Literary Circle organized at Garrard College by the young ladies and young men of that institution. For this step we must compliment the young people for nothing will advance their intellectual growth more rapidly as a thorough research after first-class literature. We wish for them advancement in their new endeavor.

—Speed Marsee, a citizen of Bell county, has recently purchased of Thos. Stone his farm near Camp Robinson of 202 acres for $10,000. Thos. Turner, another Bell county man, has bought James Hill's farm, also near Camp Robinson, of 115 acres, for $5,625. We welcome the Bell county men into our community. It is of recent date that a party of Garrard county men bought $11,000 worth of property at Middleboro. The following men are the ones that invested: W. R. Robinson, Thos. Stone, E. W. Lillard, B. Kinnaird and Joe Weisinger. Altogether this makes as much as $30,000 that our citizens have invested in real estate in Bell county.

—Mr. Wade Bush left last week for Louisville. Mrs. D. M. Anderson is in Lincoln county at the bedside of Mrs. John Anderson, who has been ill for sometime. As usual Mrs. A. is proving herself an angel of mercy. Miss Demie Luckey has returned from a pleasant visit to Richmond. Mrs. Margaret Dunn left last week to visit her sister, Mrs. Tom Richards, of your city. Misses Fox and Miss Laird, of Eaton, Ohio, are the guests of Mrs. Joseph C. W. Sweeney in New York after his spring goods. H. M. Price is at home from New York City, where he has been attending medical lectures. Mrs. Dr. Jennings Price has returned from a most pleasant visit to her son in Danville. John P. Sandifer went to Lynchburg last week on business. We are glad to report Mr. Gill's condition much improved.

—MT. VERNON, ROCKCASTLE COUNTY.

—T. J. Hansell was married to Miss Mary Vanderpolder Friday last.

—L. Honk sold a 150 acre farm six miles north of town to Capt. Evans for $2,500.

—Cash Hatt had his hand badly ground on a sun-paper machine in the furniture factory.

—Edlings set fire to J. M. Miller's residence Friday night. The bucket brigade responded quickly and subdued the flames.

—F. L. Clifford, agent at Livingston, has been transferred to a similar position at Williamsburg. H. B. Lays goes from Williamsburg to Bessemer, Ala.; J. B. Endicott, of Hazel Patch, takes Livingston.

—The jail birds had a well laid plan to make their escape Friday night by knocking the jailer on the head and making a run for liberty, but their scheme was given away by a woman and their plan frustrated.

—John Collier and J. J. McCall have moved to the Evans farm. Josh Boring has moved to the Gresham property. Peter Burk is moved to East Bernstadt. Billy Gresham has concluded to remain in Rockcastle and not go to Texas.

—W. C. Wiley Coffey had a difficultly over a settlement. Wiley knocked Coffey in the head with a rock inflicting a serious wound from which Coffey will likely lose an eye. If the people will resume the habit of using stones instead of pistols better times may be looked for.

—Conductor Wm. Isaacs was fatally injured while coupling cars near Somerton.

—Goff and Senator Carr were both sworn in as governors of West Virginia yesterday and the courts are to decide which is entitled to the office.

—Mrs. Medie Robinson, a sister of R. H. Tomlinson, Esq., of Lancaster, died at Buena Vista, Thursday of neuralgia of the stomach, aged 44. —Lancaster News.

—The Somerton Reporter publishes this, which we hope is untrue: H. Burman Price, of Lancaster, late of Hennepin Hall, etc., is being advertised by the Chattanooga papers as a dead-beat and forger.

LAWRENCE'S Garden seed, new crop, "Model Grocery."

New wall paper now in with borders 20 inches wide to match. Call and see them. Owsley & Craig.

As administrator of W. M. Ball L. S. Phillips sold a house and a  $\frac{1}{2}$  acre lot in Maysville yesterday for \$170.

The Joliet News says that Dr. J. G. Moore (who married Mr. Jonathan Owseley's daughter) rejoices over the advent of a girl baby.

We have received our new line of carpets, ranging from 15, 20, 25, 35, 40, 50 and 75 cents. Also in full line of Smymerings 75 cents to a very large size at $3. Owsley & Craig.

A large deer was shot by Mr. At. P. Huffman near Mr. Lewis' Dillard's mill Saturday afternoon. The day before Mr. M. O. Vandever saw one pass his house with a couple of hounds following a few hundred feet behind. Mr. E. E. Beasley afterwards caught Huffman's deer with his dogs. It weighed 75 pounds.

Nowhere is idleness so plainly shown as at the depot about train time. Negroes and the more industrious white loafers, who can summon enough energy to walk up the hill leading thither, gather there and congregate, monopolizing the entire platform. For curiosity we made a count of the crowd there one day last week, which showed that 52 black and 39 white people awaited an incoming train. It looks like a pity to prevent the poor things the pleasure they derive from this, if it is a pleasure, but is nearly an impossibility to move without being knocked up against some one, and for that reason steps should be taken to decrease the number of spectators at least half.

The editor bends the stiff knee of his broken leg as much as he can in token of his appreciation of the good words from his steadfast friend and faithful assistant, Rev. J. A. Bigle, though he is evidently poking fun at him. But it's all right, his gray hairs protect him.

Levi Morris Washington that Speed South and Hollins Barron, of Madison and the Little Red Hog, of London, are striving for the chairmanship of this district. Lawyer Dawson thought at first that he had the lead on the place, but it was decided that he was too light to hold it down.

This signal service reports that the average temperature in Kentucky during February was 32.2°, making it the coldest corresponding month for several years. The 10th was the warmest day, and the 6th the coldest, 6°. The total rainfall was 2.33 inches, which is 2.15 below the average.

The Louisville Post says that all the fashionable girls there are imitating the style of arranging the hair for street to be introduced by Mary Anderson. The hair is combed back from the face in such a way as to just cover the tips of the ears, while the back of the head is covered from the crown to the neck and pinned with fancy silver pins.

CAPT. AND MRS. DEGEN, who moved from here to Louisville recently, were both badly burned last week. Mrs. Degen's dress caught fire and caused the accident.

The Register says Misses Annie Alcorn and Foxie Pennington completely captivated the Richmond beau, who kept the crowd in suspense throughout during their stay.

The newspaper correspondents agree that Miss Mattie Thompson, daughter of Little Phil, is the most beautiful girl in Washington this year. She recently had the honor of receiving with Mrs. Cleve land.

W. G. Kissick, the advance man for the Carr-Pryor Co., is here preparing for its coming Thursday night. He says our people may rest assured that his company is one of the best traveling in the interior towns.

We regret very much to hear that Miss Annie Way will start this week to Bloomington, Ill., to live. She is a most estimable and lovable young lady and her friends will envy her genuine sorrow over her departure.

Mr. Thomas Lester, of Stanford, has taken a position in the dry goods house of Mr. A. A. Metz. He is a nephew of our townsmen, Dr. Andrew Seigert, with whom he is residing. We wish him much success while in our city, Hopkinsville Kentucky.

D. P. W. Lucas, an old resident, returned to Stanford from Knobsville Sunday and will probably locate here or make it his headquarters. He has taken the State agency for the Equity Life Insurance Co., of Stanton, Va. His sons, Dick and Fornie, accompanied him and his wife will arrive in a few days.

The Carr-Pryor Combination, which appears here the three last nights of this week, the Madison, Ind., Daily Herald says: A large audience was present at the grand last night to greet the beautiful little belle, Miss Carr-Pryor, supported by an excellent company. Miss Pryor is an artist of more than ordinary ability who plays her part to perfection. Her singing was delightful and she was heartily cheered. Mr. Blondell, as Simon Trigg, is a splendid actor and his worth as such was highly appreciated. There were times during the progress of the play that the vast audience seemed spell-bound, so much so that one could almost hear a pin drop so wrapt was the audience.

This medicine is an Alterative, and causes a radical change in the system. The process, in some cases, may not be quite so rapid as in others; but, with persistence, the result is certain. Read these testimonials:—

"For two years I suffered from a severe pain in my right side, and had other troubles caused by a torpid liver and dyspepsia. After giving several remedies a fair trial without a cure, I began to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I was greatly benefitted by the first bottle, and after taking five bottles I was completely cured." — John H. Benson, 70 Lawrence st., Lowell, Mass.

Last May a large carbuncle broke out on my arm. The usual remedies had no effect and I was confined in my bed for eight weeks. A friend induced me to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Less than three bottles healed the sore. In all my experience with medicine, I never saw more

Wonderful Results.

Another marked effect of the use of this medicine, was the strengthening of my sight." — Mrs. Carrie Adams, Holly Springs, Texas.

"I had a dry scaly humor for years, and suffered terribly; and, as my brother and sister were similarly afflicted, I presume the malady is hereditary. Last winter, Dr. Tavon, (of Fernandina, Fla.) recommended me to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and continue it for a year. For five months I took it daily. I have had a blemish upon my body for the last three months." — T. E. Wiley, '46 Chambers st., New York City.

"Last fall and winter I was troubled with a dull, heavy pain in my side. I did not notice it much at first, but it gradually grew worse until it became almost unbearable. During the latter part of the year, the disease of the lungs and liver increased my trouble. I began taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and, after faithfully continuing the use of this medicine for some months, the pain disappeared and I was completely cured." — Mrs. Augusta A. Furbush, Blawervill, Mass.

J. T. SUTTON & CO.,

HUSTONVILLE, KY.

We are still in the business and ready to do anything in the Underwriting line. We have a full stock of Cases and Caskets of all kinds and robes of every description. Our horse, which is nearly new, can be obtained in short notice. Mr. J. T. Sutton is doing our business and will show our goods to any one needing anything in our line.

A house shoe that can be applied as easily as a man can pull on his own boots is a new English invention. It dispenses with the necessity of blacksmiths to a great extent. As soon as a horse casts a shoe, instead of a provoking delay becoming necessary to prevent injuring the horse, a new one can be put on in three minutes. This shoe is nailless, pinches the edges of the hoof at certain places and will remain as long as other shoes. — Troy Telegram.

It cost four smart young men of Washington, D. C. just $3 apiece in the police court for questioning each other "Where is the 'white house'" when an auburn-haired girl was passing. The age of the joke, probably more than the joke itself had something to do with the fine.

The admission of these four new States adds to the historic achievements of the Cleveland administration, and hastens the time when an unbroken sisterhood of States will stretch from the Atlantic to the Pacific, and from the British possessions in Mexico and the gulf. Haste the day! — Troy Press.

"Mama's Gittin' Better." There is gloom in the household. The shadow fades away. That darkened all the sunshie. Of many a summer day.

"Oh, mama's getting better." The happy chirrity. And the light of hope shines bright again. In the loving husband's eye.

In thousands of homes women are "sick unto death" with the terrible diseases so common to their sex, and it would seem as if all happiness had gone out of life and the home held in consequence. For when the wife and mother suffers, all the family suffers with her. This ought not to be, and need not be for a new healing remedy for woman's ailments is at hand. Many a home has been made happy because the shadow of disease has been banished from it by the potent power of Dr. P. L. St. George's Prescription-the undulating remedy for all weaknesses and diseases present now.

Guaranteed for an incurable case of Cancer by the proprietors of Dr. Sage's Remedy, for by druggists.

Items About the Turf.

It is generally known that the turf in the United States gives employment directly to 50,000 persons, one-half of them with families; that indirectly it assists 50,000 more to a livelihood; that the thoroughbred stallions and brood mares of the great stock farms are valued at $6,000,000; that the sons and daughters of those brood mares earned more than $2,000,000 during the season just at an end; that the value of the stock in training for racing purposes is $7,000,000; that the capital invested in race tracks and the stables thereon or adjacent thereto is $10,000,000; that the stock farms embrace more than 140,000 acres of the finest land in the country, the money worth of which cannot be accurately estimated; that on these farms are costly dwellings, finely laid out walks, commodes stables and barns, and, in many instances, private race tracks; that the attendance at the race course last year numbered 3,000,000; that the yearling sales ran well up to a million dollars; that the rich prizes offered for the development of the horse has led to as high a price as $10,000 for a yearling; that such competition has sustained the value of the stock farms; that the valuable land in Missouri, Kansas, California, Kentucky, Tennessee, West Virginia, Pennsylvania, Maryland, New Jersey and other States, is constantly being purchased for the establishment of stock farms, and that the improvements of the horse has gone on to such an extent that agents from European countries have been here to purchase horses for cavalry purposes. It is only a question of time when we will be able to supply the world with horses, and this good result will come about chiefly because of the incentive to breeding given by the rich and representative jockey clubs in offering great prizes for the development of speed and stamina.

The outside enterprises that helped by the turf are many. The telegraph companies receive nearly a million a year for sending reports of jockey club meetings, and transacting other business in relation to the doings of horses. This gives employment to many expert telegraphers. The printing and advertising of the clubs, the printing of catalogues by the breeders throughout the country, the programmes, book records, and printed classification of horses, thoroughbred and otherwise, keeps 50,000 persons busy, and costs a round sum of money. The railroads employ special cars for the carrying of horses all over the country, and in addition carry more than 300,000 persons to the races during each year. Then there is the employment of farmers for selling produce to the owners of horses and of horses; and there are many other ways in which money is used to give work to residents of many communities. — "Black and Blue" in the Mail and Express.

Welcome back! Prof. Whitewater entered the Arizona Kicker office yesterday with beaming smile and extended hand, after an absence of about ten months spent in the penitentiary. He was unfortunate enough, it will be remembered, to shoot some one in a little dispute at the Red Front Saloon and the court thought it best for him to take a little vacation.

The Professor returns home looking in good health and filled with enthusiasm over the progress the town has made during his absence. We welcome him. A little State-prison experience hasn't hurt him, nor won't hurt any of our townsmen.

Where there is worldly prosperity there is a temptation to pride and forgetfulness of God. It is well for us to be called to remember that He is the source and giver of all good. It is us we recognize Him that we shall escape from attributing our prosperity to our sagacity and industry, and we shall learn to use what we possess as He intended us to use it, so that it shall be made a blessing to others as well as ourselves. ### Buckler's Arnica Salve.

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, ulcers, scalding, burns, rashes, blisters, chilblains, corns, and all skin eruptions and positively cures piles, or no part required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price 15 cents per jar. For safety, A. R. Penny, Standard, Ky.

Worth Knowing.

Mr. W. H. Morgan, merchant, Lake City, Fla., was taken with a severe cold, attended with a distressing cough and running into Consumption in its first stages. He tried many so-called popular remedies and steadily grew worse. Was reduced in flesh, lost durability in breathing and was unable to sleep. Finally tried Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption and found immediate relief, and after using about a half dozen bottles found himself well and had no return of the disease. No other remedy can show so grand a record of cures as Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Guaranteed to do just what is named for it—trial before free at A. R. Penny's Drug Store.
